Message from Elton the Therapy Dog

My Lynn (Stratton), Grandpa (Malcolm) and I will share some stories with you on Sunday March 9 at 9.30 a.m. of the work Grandpa and I do at the Flinders Medical Centre. We are part of a large team of Therapy Dogs. I became Lynn's dog when I was small. She trained me in a quiet and loving way. When Lynn was very ill, Grandpa took me to Flinders because Lynn couldn't take me to a Nursing home anymore. Every week we have lots of fun, and I even see some people cry. Being a Therapy Dog is wonderful and tiring, so Grandpa gives me drinks and treats when I ask for a rest. We hope that you will enjoy our stories about how special it is to bring joy to patients, staff, families, and the people we meet in wards, offices and corridors.

Scratch be hind the ear!
Elton
