Entering into a New Order

On Palm Sunday we celebrate Jesus' arrival in Jerusalem. He was riding a donkey, a very humble way to inaugurate a new kingdom.

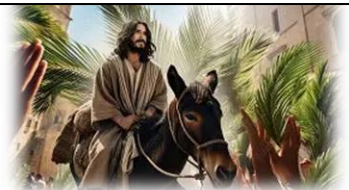

As he rode, people were placing branches (not necessarily palms) on the ground. They were also putting their (expensive) cloaks made of wool or goat hair on the ground. Why?

Over time, repressive regimes have often come and misused power. Today the world is in the messy middle, where ordinary people are suffering greatly.

Jesus, the saviour of the world, brings a new era, a new order where justice reigns, where ordinary people trust in Jesus and find new life.

As Christians we believe that our prayers will help change the world into a new era, a new creation where all creatures are blessed, and there will be no algal bloom, no fuel crisis, and the old empires no longer have power.

We will meet in the Chapel @ 7pm,
