My dear friends,

Last week our reading was Genesis 37:1-4, 12-28; this week our reading will be Genesis 45:1-15, and we will be looking at the second part of Joseph's life. You might want to re-read those two readings before this Sunday, to refresh the details of Joseph's amazing story!

I think I will wear my 'coat of many colours' again on Sunday, just to give flavour to the story. Maybe you would like to wear a bright colour or two, so I am not alone in shining bright 😊

Reconciliation between family members can be such a challenge. I know that many families, including my own, have very difficult relationship issues that seem insurmountable. The situation between Joseph and his brothers is another example of a relationship where restoration seems impossible. But nothing is impossible with God! I am looking forward to exploring this story with you on Sunday –

Go Well,
Shelley
